

Dear Sabine,

*Ngali winhangaygunhanka ngindhu nanhaybiyi yalbilinya Wiradjuri
bu your determination murrayarra. | We recall your enthusiasm to learn*

Wiradjuri and your determination to speak out.

And to keep us informed of what was happening in relation to the injustices towards First Nations peoples. It seemed as though your illness was secondary to the fight that needed to be had for justice.

Sabine, you were such a lovely person. It is difficult to believe we won't bump into you and see your outstretched hand holding a flyer for the next rally for justice. We will miss you Sabine, RIP.

Stuart and Nilva

5/11/2022

Dear Sabine,

Ngali winhangaygunhanha ngindhu nanhaybiyi yalbilinya Wiradjuri bu your determination murrayarra./We recall your enthusiasm to learn Wiradjuri and your determination to speak out. And to keep us informed of what was happening in relation to the injustices towards First Nations peoples. It seemed as though your illness was secondary to the fight that needed to be had for justice. Sabine, you were such a lovely person. It is difficult to believe we won't bump into you and see your outstretched hand holding a flyer for the next rally for justice. We will miss you Sabine, RIP.

Stuart and Nilva
5/11/2022